

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
DISTRICT OF NEBRASKA

ZACH HILLESHEIM, Plaintiff, v. CMART, LLC, Defendant	Case No. _____ COMPLAINT Injunctive Relief Sought
--	---

Plaintiff Zach Hillesheim, by and through the undersigned counsel, brings this action against CMART, LLC, a Nebraska limited liability company, for violations of the Americans With Disabilities Act, 42 U.S.C. § 12181, et seq. (the “ADA”) and its implementing regulations, and alleges as follows:

INTRODUCTION

1. Plaintiff brings this civil rights action against Defendant for failing to design, construct, and/or own or operate facilities that are fully accessible to, and independently usable by, persons with disabilities.

2. Defendant owns the service station and convenience store known as “Lewis & Clark Mini Mart” which to the extent it was constructed and first occupied after January 26, 1993 or was altered after January 26, 1993 was required to be designed and constructed to be readily accessible to persons with disabilities. To the extent “Lewis & Clark Mini Mart” was not constructed or altered before January 26, 1993, it was required to remove barriers to access to the extent barrier removal was readily achievable. “Lewis & Clark Mini Mart” contains architectural barriers to accessibility.

3. The violations alleged in this complaint occurred at “Lewis & Clark Mini Mart”, located at 89001 Hwy 121, Crofton, NE 68730.

4. Defendant’s failure to provide equal access to “Lewis & Clark Mini Mart” violates the mandates of the ADA to provide full and equal enjoyment of a public accommodation’s goods, services, facilities, privileges, and advantages.

5. Defendant’s conduct constitutes an ongoing and continuous violation of the law.

6. Accordingly, Plaintiff seeks a declaration that Defendant’s facilities violate federal law and an injunction requiring Defendant to make modifications to the facilities so that they are fully accessible to, and independently usable by, individuals with disabilities. Plaintiff further requests that the Court retain jurisdiction over this matter for a period to be determined to ensure that Defendant continues to comply with the relevant requirements of the ADA.

JURISDICTION AND VENUE

7. Jurisdiction of this Court arises under 28 U.S.C. §§ 1331 and 1343(a)(3). This action includes federal law claims brought pursuant to Title III of the Americans with Disabilities Act, 42 U.S.C. §§ 12181–12189. The Court has the jurisdiction to issue a declaratory judgment pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 2201 and Fed R. Civ. P. 57.

8. Venue in this judicial district is proper because Defendant is located and transacts business within this judicial district and has sufficient contacts to be subject to personal jurisdiction in this judicial district, and because this is the judicial district in which the acts and omissions giving rise to the claims occurred.

PARTIES

9. Plaintiff Zach Hillesheim is a resident of the city of Omaha, Nebraska.

10. Plaintiff suffers from, and all times relevant hereto has suffered from, a legal disability as defined by the ADA, 42 U.S.C. § 12102(2). Plaintiff is therefore a member of a protected class under the ADA, under the regulations implementing the ADA set forth at 28 C.F.R. § 36.101 et seq.

11. Plaintiff Hillesheim was paralyzed as an infant while undergoing surgery to address a congenital heart defect. During the surgery, his spine was severed, paralyzing him below the waist. Mr. Hillesheim cannot walk and uses a wheelchair for mobility. As a person with a disability, Mr. Hillesheim has a personal interest in having full and equal access to places of public accommodation and to the goods, services, facilities, privileges, advantages or other things offered therein.

12. Defendant CMART, LLC, a Nebraska limited liability company, is the owner of the real property and improvements which are the subject of this action, the service station and convenience store known as “Lewis & Clark Mini Mart”, a place of public accommodation within the meaning of the ADA, located at the street address of 89001 Hwy 121, Crofton, NE 68730.

FACTUAL BACKGROUND

13. On July 1, 2018 Plaintiff Hillesheim visited the service station and convenience store “Lewis & Clark Mini Mart” in Crofton, Nebraska.

14. Plaintiff was travelling through Crofton on the way to a family vacation and passed through Crofton again multiple times in July 2018. Plaintiff has reservations to return to the area in October 2018, and plans to continue to vacation in the area in the future.

15. Plaintiff used the curb ramp on the route between the “Lewis & Clark Mini Mart” customer parking lot and entrance, but a thick mat made scaling the ramp difficult.

16. A photograph in Exhibit A to this Complaint depicts the mat on the ramp as it appeared on Plaintiff's July 1, 2018 visit.

17. "Lewis & Clark Mini Mart" served food, but Plaintiff could not dine there because no interior tables were at an accessible height and no outdoor tables had open space for wheelchairs to approach.

18. Photographs in Exhibit B to this Complaint depict the dining surfaces available at "Lewis & Clark Mini Mart" as they appeared on Plaintiff's July 1, 2018 visit.

19. Plaintiff could not comfortably use the sink in the customer restroom as it was situated too high for a wheelchair user.

20. The soap and paper towel dispensers and the mirror located near the sink in the customer restroom were also situated too high for Plaintiff to use comfortably.

21. A photograph in Exhibit C to this Complaint depicts the area around the sink in the customer restroom as it appeared on Plaintiff's July 1, 2018 visit.

22. Plaintiff used the customer restroom at "Lewis & Clark Mini Mart", but the toilet was positioned far from both the rear wall, which made it difficult to use the grab bars.

23. Additionally, the toilet had inadequate clearance in the immediate area around the toilet to make a safe transfer between Plaintiff's wheelchair and the toilet.

24. The flush control for the toilet was located on the wall side rather than the open side of the toilet.

25. As a result of the mobility barriers near the toilet and the lack of clearance, Plaintiff fell when he attempted to transfer to the toilet from his wheelchair.

26. The toilet was positioned too far forward, resulting in the toilet paper dispenser being located parallel to the toilet instead of in front of the toilet, making it difficult to use.

27. A photograph in Exhibit D to this Complaint depicts the toilet in the customer restroom at “Lewis & Clark Mini Mart” as it appeared on Plaintiff’s July 1, 2018 visit.

28. In light of the architectural barriers at “Lewis & Clark Mini Mart”, Plaintiff Hillesheim is deterred from visiting “Lewis & Clark Mini Mart” in the future. Plaintiff Hillesheim intends to return to “Lewis & Clark Mini Mart”, but these architectural barriers deter him from doing so. He plans to return and patronize “Lewis & Clark Mini Mart” when he learns that the premises have been made fully accessible to persons who use wheelchairs for mobility.

29. Plaintiff Hillesheim is a resident of Omaha, Nebraska, and he plans to continue visiting businesses in the Crofton area and along Highway 12 in the future and would enjoy being able to patronize Defendant’s service station and convenience store.

30. Plaintiff Hillesheim attempted to access Defendant’s premises but could not do so independently on a full and equal basis because of his disabilities, due to the physical barriers to access and violations of the ADA that exist at Defendant’s premises. As a result of Defendant’s non-compliance with the ADA, Plaintiff Hillesheim cannot independently access the facilities and/or is excluded from full and equal enjoyment of the goods, services, privileges, advantages, and/or accommodations offered therein.

THE ADA AND ITS IMPLEMENTING REGULATIONS

31. On July 26, 1990, President George H.W. Bush signed into law the ADA, 42 U.S.C. § 12101, et seq., a comprehensive civil rights law prohibiting discrimination on the basis of disability. In its findings, Congress determined that, among other things:

- a. Some 43 million Americans have one or more physical or mental disabilities, and this number is increasing as the population as a whole grows older;

- b. Historically, society has tended to isolate and segregate individuals with disabilities, and, despite some improvements, discrimination against individuals with disabilities continues to be a serious and pervasive social problem;
- c. Discrimination against individuals with disabilities persists in such critical areas as employment, public housing accommodations, education, transportation, communication, recreation, institutionalization, health services, voting, and access to public services;
- d. Individuals with disabilities continually encounter various forms of discrimination; and
- e. The continuing existence of unfair and unnecessary discrimination and prejudice denies people with disabilities the opportunity to compete on an equal basis and to pursue those opportunities for which our society is justly famous, and costs the United States billions of dollars in unnecessary expenses resulting from dependency and nonproductivity.

42 U.S.C. § 12101(a)(1)–(3), (5), (9).

- 32. Congress explicitly stated that the purpose of the ADA was to:
 - a. Provide a clear and comprehensive mandate for the elimination of discrimination against individuals with disabilities;
 - b. Provide clear, strong, consistent, enforceable standards addressing discrimination against individuals with disabilities; and
 - c. Invoke the sweep of congressional authority, including the power to enforce the Fourteenth Amendment and to regulate commerce, in order to address the major areas of discrimination faced day-to-day by individuals with disabilities.

42 U.S.C. § 12101(b)(1), (2), (4).

33. Title III of the ADA prohibits discrimination in the activities and facilities of places of public accommodation and requires places of public accommodation to comply with ADA standards and to be readily accessible to, and independently usable by, individuals with disabilities. 42 U.S.C. § 12181–89.

34. The ADA provided places of public accommodation one and one-half years from its enactment to implement its requirements. The effective date of Title III of the ADA was January 26, 1992 (or January 26, 1993 if a business had 10 or fewer employees and gross receipts of $500,000 or less). 42 U.S.C. § 2181; 28 C.F.R. § 36.508(a).

35. Pursuant to the mandates of 42 U.S.C. § 12134(a), the Department of Justice (“DOJ”) promulgated federal regulations to implement the requirements of Title III of the ADA, which are codified at 28 C.F.R. Part 36. Appendix A of the 1991 Title III regulations (republished as Appendix D to 28 C.F.R. Part 36) contains the ADA Standards for Accessible Design, which were based upon the ADA Accessibility Guidelines (“1991 ADAAG”) published by the Access Board on the same date. Public accommodations were required to conform to these regulations by January 26, 1992 (or January 26, 1993 if a business had 10 or fewer employees and gross receipts of $500,000 or less). 42 U.S.C. § 12181, et seq.; 28 C.F.R. § 36.508(a).

36. In 1994, the Access Board began the process of updating the 1991 ADAAG by establishing a committee composed of members of the design and construction industries, the building code community, and State and local government entities, as well as individuals with disabilities.

37. In 1999, based largely upon the report and recommendations of the advisory committee, the Access Board issued a notice of proposed rulemaking to update and revise the 1991 ADAAG.

38. The Access Board issued final publication of revisions to the 1991 ADAAG on July 3, 2004.

39. On September 30, 2004, the DOJ issued an advance notice of proposed rulemaking to begin the process of adopting the 2004 ADAAG revisions.

40. On June 17, 2008, the DOJ published a notice of proposed rulemaking covering Title III of the ADA.

41. The extended process of revising the 1991 ADAAG culminated with the DOJ's issuance of the 2010 Standards for Accessible Design ("2010 Standards"). The 2010 Standards incorporated the revised 2004 ADA Accessibility Guidelines ("ADAAG"), as well as the requirements contained in subpart D of 28 C.F.R. Part 36. The DOJ published the Final Rule detailing the 2010 Standards on September 15, 2010. The 2010 Standards became effective on March 15, 2011.

FACTUAL ALLEGATIONS

42. Defendant has discriminated against Plaintiff on the basis of his disabilities by failing to comply with the requirements of the ADA and the ADAAG with regard to "Lewis & Clark Mini Mart". A specific, though not exclusive, list of unlawful physical barriers and ADA violations present at "Lewis & Clark Mini Mart" which limit the ability of persons in wheelchairs to access the facilities and/or to enjoy the goods, services, privileges, advantages and/or accommodations offered therein on a full and equal basis, includes the following:

- a. The curb ramp between the "Lewis & Clark Mini Mart" customer parking lot and the store entrance had a mat with a surface inadequately stable, firm, and slip resistant surface, making travel difficult for Plaintiff, in violation of ADAAG 405.4 and 302.1. Plaintiff requires a ramp with a firm surface that provides enough friction to move safely between the parking lot and the sidewalk outside “Lewis & Clark Mini Mart”.

- b. “Lewis & Clark Mini Mart” sold food and provided tables, but these tables lacked accessible dining surfaces complying with ADAAG 902, in violation of ADAAG 226.1.
- c. “Lewis & Clark Mini Mart” sold food and provided interior dining tables, but these dining surfaces were all situated higher than 34 inches, in violation of ADAAG 902.3. Plaintiff uses a wheelchair for mobility and cannot use high-top style tables.
- d. “Lewis & Clark Mini Mart” sold food and provided picnic tables outside the store, but these picnic tables did not have clear floor space for a forward approach, in violation of ADAAG 902.2. Plaintiff uses a wheelchair and requires clear space to approach a table.
- e. The toilet paper dispenser was not located 7 to 9 inches in front of the toilet, in violation of ADAAG 604.7. Plaintiff has limited mobility and requires an easily accessible toilet paper dispenser.
- f. The toilet in the “Lewis & Clark Mini Mart” customer restroom lacked clearance at least 60 inches perpendicular from the side wall and 56 inches from the rear wall, in violation of ADAAG 604.3. The inadequate clearance and unusual positioning of the toilet made it difficult for Plaintiff to approach the toilet, resulting in Plaintiff falling during the transfer between his wheelchair and the toilet.

- g. The flush mechanism on the toilet was not located on the open side of the toilet, in violation of ADAAG 604.6. Improperly placed flush controls are difficult for Plaintiff to reach.

43. The above listing is not to be considered all-inclusive of the barriers and violations of the ADA encountered by Plaintiff or which exist at “Lewis & Clark Mini Mart”.

44. In order to fully remedy the discriminatory conditions, Plaintiff requires an inspection of “Lewis & Clark Mini Mart” in order to photograph and measure all such barriers to access and violations of the ADA and the ADAAG.

45. Compliance with the ADA standards, and the ADAAG is required by 42 U.S.C §§ 12182 and 12183 to the extent the facility was designed and constructed or altered after January 26, 1993, and the violations to the ADAAG requirements are not a result of compliance being structurally impracticable. 28 C.F.R § 36.401(a)(1).

46. In the alternative, to the extent any architectural elements were constructed prior to that date, compliance with the ADA standards and the ADAAG is required by 42 U.S.C § 12182(b)(2)(A)(iv) because removal of architectural barriers is readily achievable. Compliance with the ADA standards and the ADAAG is readily achievable by Defendant due to the lack of difficulty and low cost of remedying the above-listed barriers. Some of the above-listed violations can be remedied through the same measures prescribed by federal regulation as examples of modifications that are “readily achievable”, including, but not limited to, repositioning paper towel dispensers. 28 C.F.R. § 36.304(b).

47. Compliance is also readily achievable due to the significant assistance available to businesses. Section 44 of the IRS Code allows a Disabled Access tax credit for small businesses with 30 or fewer full-time employees or with total revenues of $1 million or less, which is intended to offset the cost of undertaking barrier removal and alterations to improve accessibility. Section 190 of the IRS Code provides a tax deduction for businesses of all sizes for costs incurred in removing architectural barriers, up to $15,000. See ADA Update: A Primer for Small Business, <http://www.ada.gov/regs2010/smallbusiness/smallbusprimer2010.htm#tax> (Mar. 16, 2011).

48. As a person with a disability, Plaintiff Hillesheim has a personal interest in having full and equal access to places of public accommodation and to the goods, services, facilities, privileges, advantages or other things offered therein.

49. Without injunctive relief, Defendant's failure to remove accessibility barriers will continue to cause injury to Plaintiff, who will continue to be unable to independently access "Lewis & Clark Mini Mart" and/or to enjoy the goods, services, privileges, advantages and/or accommodations offered therein on a full and equal basis, in violation of his rights under the ADA.

FIRST CAUSE OF ACTION

Violations of the Americans with Disabilities Act, 42 U.S.C. §§ 12101 et seq.

50. Plaintiff incorporates and realleges the above paragraphs.

51. Section 302(a) of Title III of the ADA, 42 U.S.C. §§ 12101 et seq., provides:

No individual shall be discriminated against on the basis of disability in the full and equal enjoyment of the goods, services, facilities, privileges, advantages, or accommodations of any place of public accommodation by any person who owns, leases (or leases to), or operates a place of public accommodation.

52. Under Section 302(b)(1) of Title III of the ADA, it is unlawful discrimination to deny individuals with disabilities an opportunity to participate in or benefit from the goods, services, facilities, privileges, advantages, or accommodations that is equal to the opportunities afforded to other individuals.

53. Defendant has discriminated against Plaintiff and others in that it failed to make its place of public accommodation fully accessible to persons with disabilities on a full and equal basis in violation of 42 U.S.C. § 12182(a) and the regulations promulgated thereunder, including the ADAAG, as described above. Plaintiff Hillesheim has been denied full and equal access to “Lewis & Clark Mini Mart” and/or has been denied the opportunity to participate in or benefit from the goods, services, facilities, privileges, advantages, or accommodations on a full and equal basis.

54. Defendant has failed to take any prompt and equitable steps to remedy its discriminatory conduct. Defendant’s violations of the ADA and ADAAG are ongoing.

55. Defendant has failed to remove architectural barriers to full and equal access by Plaintiff Hillesheim, even though removing the barriers was required and is readily achievable.

56. Plaintiff Hillesheim plans to visit “Lewis & Clark Mini Mart” again in the near future. Plaintiff is without adequate remedy at law, has suffered and is suffering irreparable harm, and reasonably anticipates that he will continue to suffer irreparable harm upon his planned return visit to “Lewis & Clark Mini Mart” unless and until Defendant is required to remove the physical barriers to access and ADA violations that exist at Defendant’s place of public accommodation, including those set forth specifically herein.

57. This Court has authority under 42 U.S.C. § 12188 to grant Plaintiff injunctive relief, including an order requiring Defendant to make “Lewis & Clark Mini Mart” readily accessible to and independently usable by individuals with disabilities to the extent required by the ADA and ADAAG, and/or to close “Lewis & Clark Mini Mart” until such time as Defendant cures the access barriers.

58. Plaintiff has retained the undersigned counsel for the filing and prosecution of this action, and is entitled to recover reasonable attorneys’ fees, litigation expenses and costs from Defendant, pursuant to 42 U.S.C. §§ 12205, 12117, and 28 C.F.R. § 36.505.

WHEREFORE, Plaintiff respectfully requests:

- a. Plaintiff demands a trial in Omaha, Nebraska.
- b. That the Court issue a Declaratory Judgment that determines that Defendant’s facilities, at the commencement of the instant suit, are in violation of Title III of the ADA, 42 U.S.C. § 12181, et seq., and the relevant implementing regulations including the ADAAG.
- c. That the Court award nominal damages.
- d. That the Court issue a permanent injunction, pursuant to 42 U.S.C. § 12188(a)(2) and 28 C.F.R. § 36.504(a), enjoining Defendant from continuing its discriminatory practices; including an order directing Defendant to remove all barriers to the maximum extent feasible or in the alternative make all readily achievable alterations to its facilities so as to remove physical barriers to access and make its facilities fully accessible to and independently usable by individuals with disabilities to the extent required by the ADA; and also including an order requiring Defendant to make all reasonable modifications in policies, practices or procedures necessary to afford all offered goods, services, facilities, privileges, advantages or accommodations to individuals with disabilities on a full and equal basis.

- e. That the Court award Plaintiff his reasonable attorneys' fees, litigation expenses, and costs of suit pursuant to 42 U.S.C. § 12205 and 28 C.F.R. § 36.505, or as otherwise provided by law; and
- f. That the Court issue such other relief as it deems just and proper, and/or is allowable under Title III of the ADA.
